Trade Secrets: Getting the Exchange You Want

You're new to Interval and exchange. Naturally, you've got questions. And we have answers.

Why is depositing my week so important?

It's all about four words: travel window and trading power. Deposit up to two years in advance of your home resort week, and you'll have four years to exchange — from two years before the week you own, until two years after. That's flexibility.

Yes, but what about that trading power?

Look at it as a competitive advantage. A deposit two years before your home resort week has more power than a deposit six months in advance. And your trading power is locked in when you deposit. That's powerful.

Is it enough to deposit?

No. Once you've deposited and you know where you want to go, either confirm an exchange or place a request.

Any request tips?

Yes. Think less about a specific destination and more about the kind of vacation you want. Looking for something tropical? Choose several Caribbean islands rather than just one. And request the smallest-size unit that will accommodate you and your traveling party.

I own at a points-based club. Do I need to deposit?

No. Just place a request and keep your points until we confirm that you have enough to make your exchange.

Anything else I should know?

Exchanging is not like booking a hotel room. New resort weeks are added to our system regularly, so the week you want may become available at any time. Just request and sit back while we do the searching for you.

Getaways

Getaways are weeklong resort accommodations at prices often less than what you'd pay for a few nights at a hotel. They are the perfect solution for when you just want to get away without exchanging your week or your points. Stay for a few nights or enjoy the full week — it's up to you!

TOP REASONS TO BOOK A GETAWAY

Room for Everyone Want some extra elbow room? Getaway resort units come in a variety of sizes, from studios comfortable for a couple's escape, to multibedroom accommodations offering space for the entire family.

See the World Getaways are available in popular destinations around the globe, at member resorts and properties outside our network. They're the perfect opportunity to sample something new!

The Price Is Right Getaways come with our Best Price Guarantee. If you find the same unit size and resort for a lower price elsewhere, we'll refund the difference.*

Interval Gold and Interval Platinum members get an additional $25 and $50 off every Getaway, respectively.

*For Best Price Guarantee, find a lower price for the stay you booked with Interval, and Interval will refund the difference. The lower price must be found within 24 hours of booking your Getaway, for the same unit size and resort, for the same time period reserved.
